1. [REDACTED] GLC) Talked further with David Martin, Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, about the possibility of [REDACTED] testifying before the Subcommittee as part of a series which it will be doing on the communist propaganda apparatus. Martin is preparing questions for [REDACTED] to review to determine whether he feels he has any contribution on the areas involved. When these are ready Martin will pass them to us to get to [REDACTED]. I also reminded Martin to check the Subcommittee's files on testimony given by [REDACTED] as he might be another good witness.

Martin mentioned they were making final preparations for the printing of the two documents which we had provided on Ghana. He said the only thing they are waiting for at this time is a letter which David Abshire, Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations, Department of State, is trying to get for them from persons who could attest to the authenticity of the Ghana documents and perhaps vouch for their validity. They will be published under the title of "Attempted Communist Subversion of Africa Through Ghana." Martin also mentioned they were making preparations for the publication of the document on political parties in Africa, which we had provided them.

Martin also mentioned their interest in any reports we might have on the recent Peace Conference in Versailles. He said they would be interested in anything we could provide them which the Committee could use as a basis for a Committee study on the conference. I told Martin I would look into this and be back in touch with them.

2. [REDACTED] - GLC) Talked with Al Tarabochia, Chief Investigator, Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, who renewed their interest in the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and in whom Sourwine previously expressed an interest. (See Journals of 20 and 21 December 1971.) I told Tarabochia I could not recall this request, but would check on it. Tarabochia merely was checking on the current status of this individual and what the prospects were for an appearance before the Subcommittee. When I advised [REDACTED] WH Division, of this conversation he told me a paper had just gone forward to the ADD/P having to do with press exploitation of [REDACTED]. I asked if mention had been made in that paper of the Subcommittee's interest and [REDACTED] said it had not. I told him I would call [REDACTED] [REDACTED] to be sure he was aware of this before any action was taken on it.
